

Growth & Development

3122 50
CLP

The Way It Keeps Going, It Reminds You of Topsy

In the past ten years, the population of Duxbury has almost doubled. The cost of Town Government has almost tripled. But available funds have increased by only one and three-quarters. The burden is on real estate owners. Of all money raised, Duxbury derives 94% of its income from real estate tax, about 4% from personal tax and 2% from poll tax.

Photo, Courtesy Plymouth Cordage